Toronto, Feb. 20th, 1918.

Sir Robert Falconer,
University College,
City.

My dear Sir Robert:-

A group of about 150 men will meet Dr. S.Earl Taylor Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church, U.S.A. at Lunch in the St.James Parish House on Wednesday, February twenty-seventh, at one P.M.

Dr.Taylor will outline for us the great Centenary campaign of his church in the interests of Home and Foreign Missions. We wish to secure as our share 45 Presbyterian men, and would consider ourselves honoured if you would be one of the number.

Trusting you can be present, and hoping you will telephone me at Main 3783, if that is more convenient than answering by mail, I am,

Yours sincerely,

A. E. Armstrong.

AEA-JS.
